RE: Strategic Acquisition of ADV Integrity

We are pleased to announce that Acuren has acquired ADV Integrity, a leading provider of engineering, materials testing and analysis, and technology development. The acquisition closed April 2, 2024. This acquisition will enhance Acuren's service offering by delivering turnkey comprehensive integrity management solutions to our customers, particularly across the Midstream and Pipeline Integrity markets. This new division will continue doing business as "ADV Integrity."

Located in Magnolia, TX, ADV Integrity serves high-profile critical infrastructure projects across various energy markets by providing bespoke full-scale testing, materials engineering, integrity and design, and technology and analysis. To learn more about ADV Integrity, please visit <https://advintegrity.com/>

This strategic acquisition offers synergies in technology, engineering domain expertise, and specialized capabilities in the pipeline integrity and coatings arenas. These services will provide industry-leading value to our customers with improved efficiencies, rich data solutions, and comprehensive integrity management support, ensuring the safety and reliability of our customers' assets.

We are looking forward to continuing to support our valued customers with these new capabilities and expanding our partnerships.
